

PUBLIC RELATIONS SPECIALIST

The Missouri Local Government Employees Retirement System (LAGERS) is seeking a Public Relations Specialist. Duties include assisting with the development, organization and implementation of statewide public information, communication and education efforts including development of member newsletters, brochures, web site, etc. Other duties include representing the system at various meetings, conferences and seminars. Statewide overnight travel is required. QUALIFICATIONS: Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university with specialization in communication, public relations, marketing, business, public administration, or other related field. Excellent verbal and written communication skills are required. Starting salary $35,000 – $37,900, shall be commensurate with experience. Excellent benefits package. Send resume, in confidence to: Public Relations Specialist, P.O. Box 1665, Jefferson City, MO 65102. LAGERS is a public pension system that provides retirement benefits to local government employees in Missouri. www.molagers.org